BRAND NEW IN THE UK. We are pleased to present the newest addition to the AcuIntegra family of clinical-grade supplements.

Created and carefully formulated by our practitioners, our brand-new UpYourHeart™ formula contains ingredients scientifically proven to contribute to the good functioning of the cardiovascular system.

Akin to our other formulas, it is free of any added sugars, artificial sweeteners or colours and fillers.

Coming in a jar with 300g of powder, it lends itself perfectly to a personalised regimen as advised by a therapist or other qualified healthcare professional.
